

Homework Questions

Conformity

- 1) Define conformity. (2)
- 2) Explain why we conform. (3)
- 3) Explain the difference between informational and normative conformity. (3)
- 4) Explain the difference between social and dispositional factors. (3)
- 5) Identify and explain two social factors that affect conformity. (4)
- 6) Identify and explain two dispositional factors that affect conformity. (4)
- 7) Outline Asch's study into conformity. Include the method, results and conclusion. (3)
- 8) Evaluate Asch's study into conformity. (3)

Obedience

- 1) Define obedience. (2)
- 2) Outline Milgram's obedience study. Refer to the method, results and conclusion. (3)
- 3) Evaluate Milgram's obedience study. (3)
- 4) Outline Milgram's Agency Theory of obedience. (3)
- 5) Identify three social factors that affect obedience. (3)
- 6) Evaluate Milgram's Agency Theory of obedience. (3)
- 7) Outline Adorno's authoritarian personality. (3)
- 8) Identify two dispositional factors that affect obedience. (2)
- 9) Evaluate Adorno's authoritarian personality. (3)

Prosocial Behaviour

- 1) Explain what is meant by prosocial behaviour. (2)
- 2) Explain the difference between bystander intervention and bystander apathy. (2)
- 3) Identify and explain two social factors that affect prosocial behaviour. (4)
- 4) Outline one study into prosocial behaviour. Refer to the method, results and conclusion. (3)
- 5) Evaluate one study into prosocial behaviour. (3)
- 6) Identify and explain two dispositional factors that affect prosocial behaviour. (4)

Crowd & Collective Behaviour – Social Loafing

- 1) Explain what social loafing means. Give an example. (3)
- 2) Identify two dispositional factors that affect social loafing. (2)
- 3) Identify two social factors that affect social loafing. (2)
- 4) Design a study that aims to investigate social loafing. Include the method you will use, the way you will measure the social loafing and the results you expect to see. (4)

Crowd & Collective Behaviour – Deindividuation

- 1) Explain what is meant by deindividuation. (2)
- 2) At home, John is a loving father and husband. Yet, at work, he is a tough and hard police officer. He says that when he puts the uniform on, he feels something change inside him. Explain John's behaviour. (3)
- 3) Identify two dispositional factors that affect deindividuation. (2)
- 4) Identify two social factors that affect deindividuation. (2)
- 5) Design a study that aims to investigate deindividuation. Include the method you will use, the way you will measure the deindividuation and the results you expect to see. (4)