

Catch Up Literacy Home Learning

Completion date: June 2nd 2020. Email Miss Hull you work for feedback and any help you may need.

You can fill out this booklet electronically or print it off and write in it. If you print it off please scan it or take a picture of each page and email it to me. You may need someone to help you with this.

You don't need to complete the whole booklet in one day, do it a bit at a time before completion date.

Name.....

Miss Hull: e.hull@sjhcsc.co.uk

Task 1: Spellings!

Have a good look at each word before covering it and writing it out yourself in the right column. You could get someone to help you with this: to read the words out or cover them for you. They can't help you to spell them though. Just try your best!

Spelling	Your go:

Task 2:

These sentences are missing a full stop and capital letter. Rewrite them so they have the correct punctuation.

- 1) jess and jake went for a walk
- 2) at new chapter primary school we always try our best
- 3) it was a cold day outside
- 4) my friend is flying to spain next summer
- 5) christmas is in December
- 6) the butterfly danced upon the leaf

This image shows a full page of primary-ruled paper. It features 18 horizontal rows, each defined by two parallel dotted lines. The rows are evenly spaced and cover the majority of the page area, leaving small margins at the top and bottom. The paper itself is white, and the dots are black. There is no handwriting or other markings on the page.

Task 3:

Read the story and answer the questions below.

Mark slung his backpack over his shoulder and ran. The bus company had just introduced a new bus route. Over the cliffs, in the distance, Mark could see the sea sparkling. With a smile, he paid for his ticket and sat down. On the drivers lap there was a newspaper with a bold headline reading 'Burglar Caught'. In the back of the bus, a commotion started up, with two teenage boys arguing. Over the bridge, the bus travelled on until it pulled up at Mark's stop. Below the deep water in the canal fish swam in the murky depths. Turning down a side alley, Mark reached his front door and took out his key. From the back lawn, the dog was barking a welcome and Mark was very glad to be home at last.

- 1) What had the bus company just introduced?
- 2) What could Mark see in the distance?
- 3) What did the newspaper headline say?
- 4) How old were the boys that were arguing?
- 5) What was in the canal?
- 6) What did Mark do when he reached his front door?
- 7) What noise could Mark hear when he got home?
- 8) How did Mark feel when he got home?
