SMILE

- Remember to use the smile acronym to organise your content for comparison.

AN EASY WAY TO COMPARE THE POEMS- USE SMILE.
(STRUCTURE, MEANING, IMAGERY, LANGUAGE, EFFECTS). EXAMPLE: YOU CAN COMPLETE...

		Exposure	Poem 2?	Similarities	Differences
S	Structure	Refrain repeated to emphasise monotony.
M	Meaning / ideas	Nature is menacing and dangerous-more harmful than war itself and therefore more powerful than man.
I	Imagery
L	Language techniques
E	Effects on the reader

A REMINDER OF THE POEM:

You also have a copy of the poem in the lesson folder for task 6.

TASK 1: HIGHLIGHT THE KEYWORDS IN THE QUESTION!

Compare the ways poets present the effects of war in 'Exposure' and in one other poem from 'Power and Conflict'. (30 marks)

Devices /methods
Remember to discuss language and structural techniques

You choose this one- make sure your choice is relevant!

What is suggested here?

TASK 2: SPEND 10 MINUTES LOOKING AT YOUR ANTHOLOGY.

- Which poem also discusses the effects of war?
- You may write up to FIVE bullet points in your book about the poem you have chosen.

Look at the model answer based on a different poem so that you can view the style of writing that is used in this comparison.

For this response, which AO does it excel in and which AO needs more development? Discuss TASK 3: (NO ANTHOLOGIES NOW) SPEND 10 MINUTES ANNOTATING THE BLANK POEM IN FRONT OF YOU.

- Remember, the question is asking about THE EFFECTS OF WAR.

How does Owen present the effects of war in "Exposure"? Make sure your annotations are relevant to the question.

TASK 4: COMPLETE YOUR RESPONSE.

Compare the ways poets present the effects of war in 'Exposure' and in one other poem from 'Power and Conflict'. (30 marks)

Keep an eye on the time- you will need to work quickly.

CONSOLIDATION

- Have you included even amounts of each AO?
- Have you got at least 5 paragraphs?

AO1 – understand the text and give quotes
AO2 – give technical terminology, techniques and specific examples, effect on the reader.
AO3 – compare with other parts of the play, context, modern/Elizabethan audiences

- How effectively have you used the SMILE strategy?

How confident do I feel answering exam questions comparing poems from the Power and Conflict cluster?
