

Checking Out Me History

1. How are possessive determiners used in this poem? Why?
2. Find three things John Agard has been taught about that he doesn't find very important to his own history.
3. Find three things he thinks he should have been taught about.
4. How has typography (think about the italics) been used in this poem?
5. How is anaphor and epiphora used in this poem?
6. Who is the nameless "dem" mentioned so many times?
7. What idea is Agard criticising?
8. How is positive language used to describe Mary Seacole?
9. What metaphor is used in the final line and why is this important?
10. What's the mood of this poem? Provide a quotation as evidence!
